NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION.

PLEASE REVIEW THIS NOTICE CAREFULLY.

As part of my professional practice, I maintain personal information about you and your health. State and federal law protects such information by limiting its uses and disclosures. "Protected health information" ("PHI") is information about you, including demographic information, that may identify you or be used to identify you, and that relates to your past, present or future physical or mental health or condition, the provision of health care services, or the past, present or future payment for the provision of health care.

Your Rights Regarding Your PHI.

The following are your rights regarding PHI I maintain about you:

Right of Access to Inspect and Copy. You have the right, which may be restricted only in certain limited circumstances, to inspect and copy your PHI that I maintain. I may charge a reasonable, cost-based fee for copies. As to your PHI that I use or maintain in electronic form and format, you may request copies to which you are otherwise entitled in that electronic form and format if it is readily producible, but if not, then in a any readable form and format as we may agree. Your request for copies may also include the direction to transmit those copies to a third party.

Right to Amend. If you feel that the PHI I have about you is incorrect or incomplete, you may ask me to amend the information although I am not required to agree to the amendment.

Right to an Accounting of Disclosures. You have the right to request a copy of the required accounting of disclosures that I make of your PHI.

Right to Request Restrictions. You have the right to request a restriction or limitation on the use or disclosure of your PHI for treatment, payment, or health care operations. I am generally not required to agree to your request. If your request would restrict disclosure to a health plan for payment or health care operation purposes, and if I have been paid in full for all of the services covered by your request, then I will honor your request.

Right to Request Confidential Communication. You have the right to request that I communicate with you in a certain way or at a certain location. I will accommodate reasonable requests and will not ask why you are making the request.

Right to a Copy of this Notice. You have the right to a paper copy of this notice.

Right of Complaint. You have the right to file a complaint in writing with me or with the Secretary of Health and Human Services if you believe I have violated your privacy rights. I will not retaliate against you for filing a complaint.

Right to Opt Out from Receiving Certain Communications. I may use or disclose your PHI for the purpose communicating to you about fundraising, or about health related products or services for which I receive compensation for sending you the communication. My communication to you must provide you an opportunity to elect not to receive any such further communications.

My Uses and Disclosures of PHI for Treatment, Payment and Health Care Operations

Treatment. I may use your PHI for the purpose of providing you with health care treatment. To coordinate and manage your care, I may disclose your PHI to others of your current providers, and to the extent you have not raised an objection in writing, to your prior providers, or to other persons, including family members, involved in your care.

Payment. I may use your PHI in connection with billing statements I send you and my system for tracking charges and credits to your account. In addition, unless I have specifically agreed to restrict disclosure of your PHI to your health plan, I may disclose your PHI to third party payers to obtain information concerning benefit eligibility, coverage, and remaining availability, as well as to submit claims for payment and to disclose PHI for medical necessity and utilization review purposes.

Health Care Operations. I may use and disclose your PHI for the health care operations of my professional practice in support of the functions of treatment and payment. Such disclosures would be to Business Associates for health care education, or to provide planning, quality assurance, peer review, administrative, legal, or financial services to assist me in my delivery of your health care.

Uses and Disclosures Requiring Your Opportunity to Agree or Object

Directory Information. I may provide directory information, unless I have given you the opportunity to agree or object, and you have objected.

Prior Providers. I may disclose your PHI to your prior health care providers, unless I have given you the opportunity to agree or object, and you have objected in writing.

Close Personal Relationships. I may, in accordance with good professional practice, disclose your PHI to such person(s) involved with your care, unless I have given you the opportunity to agree or object, and you have objected, except where you are not present, or in situations of incapacity or emergency disclosure, in my clinical judgment would be in your best interests.

Disaster Relief Purposes. I may, in accordance with good professional practice, disclose your PHI to a public or private entity authorized by law or by its charter to assist in disaster relief efforts, which are directly relevant to your care.

Other Uses and Disclosures That Do Not Require Your Authorization or Opportunity to Object

Required by Law. I may use or disclose your PHI to the extent that the use or disclosure is required by law, made in compliance with the law, and limited to the relevant requirements of the law. Examples are public health reports, abuse and neglect reports, law enforcement reports, and reports to coroners and medical examiners in connection with investigation of deaths. I also must make disclosures to the Secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services for the purpose of investigating or determining my compliance with the requirements of the Privacy Rule.

Health Oversight. I may disclose your PHI to a health oversight agency for activities authorized by law, such as my professional licensure. Oversight agencies also include government agencies and organizations that audit their provision of financial assistance to me (such as third-party payers).

Threat to Health or Safety. I may disclose your PHI when necessary to minimize an imminent danger to the health or safety of you or any other individual.

The effective date of this Notice is October 1, 2013.

Business Associates. I may disclose your PHI to the extent minimally necessary to Business Associates that are contracted by me to perform health care operations or payment activities on my behalf which may involve their collection, use or disclosure of your PHI. To safeguard the privacy of your PHI, such contracts are regulated by the Department of Health and Human Services and must contain provisions designed to limit the use and re-disclosure of your PHI, to require compliance by the Business Associate with your individual rights, to subject the Business Associate to specified security obligations, and to require the Business Associate require such obligations on subcontractor.

Compulsory Process. I will disclose your PHI if a court of competent jurisdiction issues an appropriate order. I will also disclose your PHI if (1) you and I have each been notified in writing at least fourteen days in advance of a subpoena or other legal demand, identifying the PHI sought, and the date by which a protective order must be obtained to avoid my compliance, (2) no qualified judicial or administrative protective order has been obtained, (3) I have received satisfactory assurances that you received notice of an opportunity to have limited or quashed the discovery demand, and (4) such time has elapsed.

Uses and Disclosures of PHI With Your Written Authorization

I will make other uses and disclosures of your PHI only with your written authorization. One example is my psychotherapy notes from our sessions (unless I am otherwise required by law). Another example is research involving you. You may revoke this authorization in writing at any time, unless I have taken a substantial action in reliance on the authorization such as providing you with health care services for which I must submit subsequent claim(s) for payment.

This Notice

This Notice of Privacy Practices informs you how I may use and disclose your protected health information ("PHI") and your rights regarding your PHI. I am required by law to maintain the privacy of your PHI and to provide you with notice of my legal duties and privacy practices with respect to your PHI. I am required to abide by the terms of this Notice of Privacy Practices. I reserve the right to change the terms of my Notice of Privacy Practices at any time. Any new Notice of Privacy Practices will be effective for all PHI that I maintain at that time. I will make available a revised Notice of Privacy Practices by providing you a copy upon your request, or providing a copy to you at your next appointment.
